CABLE CHOICE

FILM

Hardware
Sky Cinema 10.00pm
Hardware is a true cinematic rarity - an acclaimed British sci-fi film. Visually stunning, if slightly derivative in terms of the plot (it owes a debt to The Terminator and Predator), it features a pumping soundtrack and cameos from Iggy Pop and Motorhead's Lemmy.

GENERAL

Super Structures
Discovery 10.00pm
Two hundred and fifty miles above the Earth's surface, a £20billion international space station is under construction. This compelling, faultlessly assembled programme follows the project, whose aims include teaching self-sufficiency.

One of the many ex-skipper, Mike Atherton (pictured), could give each innings a solid start while new coach Duncan Fletcher will already be feeling the heat if his young team fails to perform. |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 10.00pm Freeview 10.05Rendezvous 10.45 RealCouples 11.40 NakedConfessions 12midnightFreeview 12.10am FriskyHot Frauleins 12.40 LesbianLust 1.05 Lesbian Fantasies1.25 FILM: Girls Affair 72.40 Madame Dominance3.10 Kinky Clubbers3.25-4.00am Adult FeatureAdult Nightview is now available as a TV on-demand service between 10.00pm and 4.00am at £3.95. ### FILM

The Ripper

Sky MovieMax 10.00pm

Interesting film focusing on the identity of the original serial killer, Jack the Ripper, naming the then Prince Edward as the notorious murderer. As conspiracy thrillers go, this premiere is a bit slow, but what it lacks in pace it more than makes up for in plot. Worth watching.

GENERAL

The Sweeney

Granada Plus 8.00pm

Morecambe and Wise agreed to guest star in this episode in return for John Thaw and Dennis Waterman's appearance on their show. Enjoy the comic duo subverting the plot, especially the car chase where Eric throws boxes of fish out of the back of a lorry.

Week 2

Saturday 11th December-Friday 17th December

Scream and scream again!

Under the mischievous direction of hard-gore specialist Wes Craven (working Kevin Williamson's in-joke-laden screenplay), 1996's Scream helped inject a perverse energy into the horror genre –and Craven's sequel, Scream 2, hacks its way across Sky MovieMax screens this week. Sidney (Neve Campbell, above with Courtney Cox) is struggling to forget the horrific events of the first film, in which she was terrorised by a masked, movie-literate assailant. But this instalment is soaked in even more blood than its predecessor, as a copycat killer starts to wreak murderous mayhem. Williams's self-quoting screenplay sometimes threatens to collapse in on itself, but he disrupts our expectations with devious skill. Craven, meanwhile, still manages to get plenty of inventive and macabre mileage out of the material. Sky MovieMax Friday 17th 10.00pm

Festive fixture for Harchester United

Fans of the addictive, observantly scripted soccer soap Dream Team are treated to a one-hour special over the festive season. Christmas is coming, the goose is getting fat ... and if Harchester United's chairman Jerry Block (Michael Melia, right) doesn't watch out, his goose will be well and truly cooked. With the police on his tail, the shock arrival of a visitor from his past and a 1-0 deficit to overcome in the UEFA Cup tie with West Ham, Christmas definitely isn't the season of good tidings and great joy for Jerry.

Wolves in for a Blue Christmas

This Friday, Wolves take on fellow First-Division battlers Birmingham City (whose Gary Rowett is pictured) in what is likely to be a typically hard-fought game at the Wanderers' Molineux Stadium.

| LIVE BOBSLEIGH: WORLD CUP EUROSPORT 1.00PMThere are so many thrilling winter sports that it's hard to pick one above the rest, but bobsleigh would be many people's choice. It's the third World Cup meeting of the season from Igls in Austria and the stars on show are mainly from the Alpine nations. Britain can cheer Sean Olsson while Germany boast Christoph Langen, (pictured) who made a brilliant comeback last season, winning both the two-man and four man titles. |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | PLAYBOY TV/ ADULT CHANNELADD-ON CHANNEL10.00am Freeview 10.05Passion Cove 11.00 AsianExotica 12midnightFreeview 12.10am PremierStrip 12.20 Neil Down 12.50Sunday Sport Stunners1.05 FILM: Hienies Heroes2.20 New Model File2.45-4.00amFILM: Adult FeatureAdult Nightview is now available as a TV on-demand service between 10.00pm and 4.00am at £3.95. ## THIS YEAR'S GADGET

Gadget-mania hits the cinemas this Christmas as a live-action version of cartoon character Inspector Gadget, whose TV adventures (inset) are showing on Fox Kids, arrives in the UK on 17 December. Matthew Broderick (left) stars as the hapless security guard who, after being blown to pieces by the evil Dr Claw (Rupert Everett), is rebuilt by scientist Brenda Bradford (Joely Fisher) to become the gizmo-crazy crime-buster, Inspector Gadget.

Because his character is made up of spare parts, the pre-production process was pretty strange for Broderick. 'I had to spend two weeks getting moulds taken of my body,' says the star, who sprang to fame in the lead role of Ferris Bueller's Day Off. 'Each cast took about 40 minutes, so it was quite a big job. Every morning I would sit around with plaster and goo all over me!' Seeing body parts scattered around the studio turned out to be something of an out-of-body experience, too ... 'It was a little bit distressing,' winces Broderick, 'particularly the head – a severed head.'

Inspector Gadget, Fox Kids, 20-31 December

| LIVE SCOTTISH PREMIER LEAGUE: DUNDEE UNITED V DUNDEE SKY SPORTS 1 5.30PM   The Dundee derby at Tannadice in the Scottish Premier League won't affect the very top of the table, but it matters on Tayside. Dundee United began the season with a terrific burst and have been sitting behind Rangers and Celtic for much of the time. Dundee (whose Eddie Annand is pictured, right), meanwhile, have struggled. United's Billy Dodds (pictured, left) scored the opening goal in a 0-2 victory when the sides last met back in October at Dens Park.   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

Living in Chicago with their single father, a university professor, these girls may look identical, but they couldn't be more different. Ashley is a girl's girl, with make-up, Valentine's and fashion. She has the brains and the looks, finding life a breeze and boys a distraction. Mary Kate is the chalk to her sister's cheese – a born sportswoman who is more at home on the softball field than in the classroom. Being a single father with a full-time job and two pre-teen daughters is virtually impossible without a little help, and when Professor Burke advertises for an after-school babysitter Ashley and Mary Kate want to get involved. With a little bit of scheming and manipulation the new babysitter is found and before long Carrie becomes the girls' best friend and Professor Burke's erstwhile nemesis, but long-term comrade in arms.PARAMOUNT COMEDY CHANNEL FAMILY PACK7.00pm CluelessBack to School7.30 RoseanneThe Bowling Show8.00 CheersDo Not Foresake Me O' My Postman8.30 Police SquadTestimony of EvilA comedian is murdered.9.00 FrasierTravels with MartinThe Cranes and Daphne set off on a road trip.9.30 FrasierMy Coffee with Niles10.00 FILM: Hunky PankyGene Wilder, Gilda Radner, Richard WidmarkComedy thriller about an innocent man drawn into a web of government secrets when the sister of a suicide victim climbs into his cab. |            | The World Cup skiing circus has rolled into Europe and has landed on the slopes of Madonna di Campiglio – which became a World Cup venue back in 1967 – for a night slalom event. The usual suspects will be on parade and on the rostrum. Austrian hero Herman Maier will try to improve on his third place overall along with the Norwegian Lasse Kjus (pictured), who was a multi-title winner last year. British hopes lie with Andrew Freshwater. |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 10.00pm Freeview 10.05 FILM: Night Shade 11.40 Sex Court 12midnight Freeview 12.10am Adult Feature 12.20 Premier Strip 12.35 FILM: Second Chances 1.50 Adult Feature 2.05 FILM: Indecent Influence 3.15 Dark and Delicious 3.35-4.00am Raw AdventuresAdult Nightview is now available as a TV on-demand service between 10.00pm and 4.00am at £3.95.
